

COMPANY PROFILE

Exactly what you expect

Just as every job needs solutions to a different extent, every dish needs a different amount of spice. The most delicate part of our job is finely analyzing the needs, the expectations and the aims. Our customers feel the satisfaction from the taste of our spices at the every stage of our service as well. It is just what you expect, neither more nor less...

Exactly the taste you expect

Every type of spice we supply is meticulously processed in our factories and every process is rigorously controlled. Just as we are passionate about the taste, we are passionate about the quality as well. We set much store by the quality, freshness and naturalness of the spices. That's exactly the reason why you can get that taste you want.

Exactly when you expect

Harvest season is when we show our expertise. It is to know the specific delicacies of the spices, the changes in the processes and the exact time that they will give you the flavor you want.

Time is of the essence here in Jain Farm Fresh. Delivering the spices collected at the right time exactly when you expect them is our absolute must. Because we know that time is precious to you as well.

Exactly the place you expect

All the spices we supply owe their quality and taste to the soil, water, sun and the passion of the farmer. With our rigorous research and inspections, we discovered the happiest places for spices; these are the exact places you expect! Because the spices growing there are ready to grow your business exactly the way you want it.

Welcome to Jain Farm Fresh Turkey.

Our story comes from India, the heart of spice. From there, it takes root with its success and spreads all over the world. Today, we are glad to keep Jain Farm Fresh's success story alive, right here at İzmir.

As Jain Farm Fresh Turkey, we manage the entire supply chain from the producer to the use of the end consumer, we provide food safety and environment-friendly production, and offer products, services and solutions that create a difference in the industry by using innovative business systems.

Spice is our business

We are with them while their seeds are being planted. We constantly visit the cultivated areas, meet with farmers, and inspect the process thoroughly. We solve problems regarding the harvest together and give them advice so that our suppliers work more efficiently.

Harvest time, time of expertise

All plants and seeds have separate harvest times. We process the spices collected at the right time with great care in our high technology factories and make them ready for your business.

Quality comes first

We think that quality cannot be added on, it must be created. With this approach, every stage of the supply chain is under our control and carefully monitored.

Our operations are based on a huge trust

What our business partners will find here are delicious and high quality spices, expertise and quality, a sustainable strategy and a strong business cooperation.
